

Abstract

This community service activity took the form of training on improving the intelligent ability to use social media for students in West Jakarta High School. The aim of this training is for high school students to have the ability to read, upload and apply social media intelligently. This training activity is planned to be held in February 2020 in West Jakarta. This activity is expected to be attended by students who live in West Jakarta.